

fields

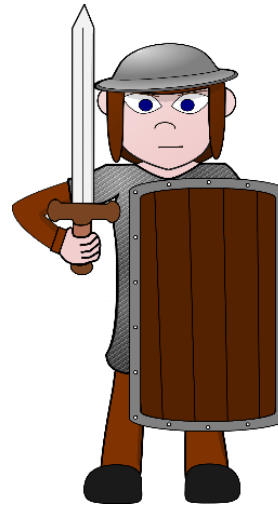

berries

shield

ee -y ea e ie

ie

wield a shield

thief

priest

chief

yield

piece

brief

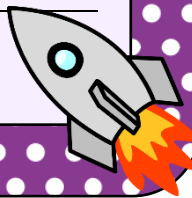

shriek

grief

belief

niece

diesel

'ie' words and silly sentences

relief	mischief	siege	achieve	believe	reprieve retrieve	hygiene	calorie	eerie	genie	prairie brie	movie	pixie	bonnie	budgie	cookie rookie	zombie	brownie	nightie	smoothie

The plural of nouns ending in 'y' usually end in 'ies'.

armies	babies	bodies	cities	copies	juries	ladies ponies	bellies	buddies	buggies	bullies	curries	daddies daisies	diaries	enemies	fairies	hobbies	jellies	lobbies lollies	lorries	parties	pennies	poppies	puppies	stories teddies	tummies	wellies	bakeries	beauties	cherries	comedies galaxies	grannies	melodies	memories	pastries	trollies	trophies

Verbs ending in 'y' can be modified with 'ied' or 'ies'.

buried	copied	envied	pitied	tidied	bullied	carried dirtied	emptied	fancied	hurried	lobbied	married	muddied parried	partied	rallied	readied	studied	tallied	worried

1. Cassie shrieked at the worried thief.
2. The brownies made pastries and cookies with cherries.
3. Charlie briefly met the chief's niece.

